The league will run for ten weeks. The league is played as a regular tournament and one hundred percent (100%) of registration money is returned to the players in the form of cash payouts. The league will pay back 20% of the field. Along with the weekly tournament payouts, players will receive a point amount for the spot they place in each tournament; the deeper you go, the higher the points you receive. Players will also be eligible to participate in freeroll tournaments at www.heartlandpokerleague.net throughout the weeks. When players take their seats, before the tournament begins, every player will have the option to buy another $500.00 in tournament chips from the dealer for $5.00.

See www.heartlandpokerleague.net for additional details regarding the new HPL Store Credits.
